

MEN'S CONFERENCE

Hope: Now and in the Future

Saturday, June 7, 2014
9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

When facing the stress and uncertainty of finances, unemployment, relationships and other problems, one needs to draw from the deep wellsprings of "hope" flowing from the Heart of God, in order to surmount the seemingly insurmountable. Come and be lifted up to "hope" through this life-changing day.

INCLUDES:

- Conferences by Dr. Phillip Chavez, Dan Grimm, Johnny Romero
- Opportunities for Private Prayer
- Fellowship
- Eucharistic Adoration
- Confession
- Holy Mass

The cost of the conference is $35, or pay what you can. Financial assistance is available. Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Dr. Phillip Chavez

Dr. Chavez has been a leader in men's ministry for several years and has a doctorate from the University of the Holy Cross in Rome. He is the founder and president of Men's Spirituality, International. Dr. Chavez' first book "Men's Spirituality: Starter Manual" was published earlier this year. His work can be found at www.MenSpirituality.com.

Dan Grimm

Dan is a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist who integrates Catholic spirituality with the best caring practices and insights of modern psychology. He assists clients dealing with trauma and abuse, addiction, and marital conflict. A graduate of Thomas Aquinas College and McGeorge School of Law, he received an M.A. in Clinical Psychology from Pepperdine University. Married since 1976, he and his wife have seven children and nine grandchildren.

Johnny Romero

Johnny was born in the rough barrios of San Fernando, California. He fell away from the faith of his childhood when he encountered Protestants who exposed him to extreme anti-Catholicism. Through grace and the help of his brother Jesse, Johnny realized the deception and came back to the faith with zeal to spread the truth. Johnny is now a dynamic bilingual lay apologist and spreads the Gospel with enthusiasm and passion.
